

Alexander Arthur Curtis - Alexander's birth was registered in 1888, at Heathcote, Victoria, the son of Thomas and Elizabeth Curtis (nee Burrows). He stated on his attestation form that he was born in Kilmore, and was a horse breaker. He enlisted on February 8, 1916 at Melbourne, aged 27 years and 9 months. As private 19331, Alexander was attached to the Australian Light Horse for training in Seymour from February to June 1918 when he was discharge medically unfit. He died in 1959 in Hay, NSW.